Dear Member:

This is to notify you that we have removed or disabled access to the following material as a result of a third-party notification by Viacom claiming that this material is infringing:

Bullrun 2006 - Cash or Jail?: http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WgE9yL7hQW8

Please Note: Repeat incidents of copyright infringement will result in the deletion of your account and all videos uploaded to that account. In order to avoid future strikes against your account, please delete any videos to which you do not own the rights, and refrain from uploading additional videos that infringe on the copyrights of others. For more information about YouTube's copyright policy, please read the Copyright Tips guide.

If you elect to send us a counter notice, please go to our Help Center to access the instructions.

Please note that under Section 512(f) of the Copyright Act, any person who knowingly materially misrepresents that material or activity was removed or disabled by mistake or misidentification may be subject to liability.

Sincerely,
YouTube, Inc.

Good Morning Courtney,

There has been some discussion on our end regarding the Bullrun takedown retraction. Per Warren's request, we would like Bay to reinstate the takedown. I believe there are 39 videos at issue. We will take another look at the user and decide what to do about the videos not addressed in this takedown. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

YouTube, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

BayTSP, Inc. ("BayTSP") swears under penalty of perjury that Viacom International Inc. has authorized BayTSP to act as its non-exclusive agent for copyright infringement notification. BayTSP's search of the protocol listed below has detected infringements of Viacom International Inc. copyright interests on your IP addresses as detailed in the attached report.

BayTSP has reasonable good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of in the attached report is not authorized by Viacom International Inc., its agents, or the law. The information provided herein is accurate to the best of our knowledge. Therefore, this letter is an official notification to effect removal of the detected infringement listed in the attached report. The attached documentation specifies the exact location of the infringement.

We hereby request that you immediately remove or block access to the infringing material, as specified in the copyright laws, and insure the user refrains from using or sharing with others Viacom International Inc.'s materials in the future (see, 17 U.S.C. 512). Additionally we request that the removed link state the following:

"This video has been removed due to copyright infringement."

We urge you to take immediate action to stop this infringing activity and inform us of the results of your actions.

Please respond indicating the actions you have taken to resolve this matter. The provided link has been assigned to this matter http://webreply.baytsp.com/webreply/webreply.jsp?customerid=158&commhash=. Mark,

We may have caused a channel partner account to be suspended. Before the big notice went out, we filtered the "approved usernames" from the list. However, no one put a rule (until today) to filter those out in case they made it in from BVM. There is nothing in the TERMS OF SERVICE on YouTube that states a single notice would cause the suspension of an account.

So bottom line: we sent a single notice to YouTube today for user SpikeTV. It may have included multiple infringements - we are investigating. We now have rules in place to avoid this problem in the future. This is my "oh shit" for the day.

Courntey from BayTSP verbally gave permisison to reinstate over the phone, with a formal retraction email to follow. This account was included in a whitelist BayTSP was given by Viacom, however it wasn't put into place until after the 100k removal and she is looking into how the Norbit video was removed.

I've reinstated the channel, it may take some time for all of the videos to function properly again. One day, max.

Rubin Exhibit 57

From: Courtney Nieman
Sent: Saturday, March 17, 2007 12:04 AM

Subject: Paramount YouTube account PARACCOUNT

Mark,

An authorized Paramount account on YouTube: Paraccount, was shut down today due to Terms of Service violations on YouTube. Kristina Tipton called me at around 2pm to let me know and I started digging in on our side. I couldn't find anything in CIMS, and DC has still not gotten back to me, so I contact YouTube.

Most of the support team at YouTube is out of town at a conference, but Micah did call me back with useful information. The first 2 strikes against paraccount came from the major notice on 2/2/07. The third strike was received by YouTube on March 2, for a Norbit infringement. After speaking with Micah, I asked him to restore Paramount's account and I would follow up with a formal retraction to the three infringements Bay has sent. He agreed and made that happen.

I spoke with Kristina again at around 3:45 and filled her in on what I knew at that time. She confirmed that the paraccount was back online and functioning again. I have promised to give her a more complete report on Monday. I have DC looking for any infringement sent to YouTube for user name paraccount. I have also asked YouTube to give me notice ID's. So I am confident that I can fulfill my promise as scheduled on Monday.

I will have my cell phone with me, so give me a call if you have any questions.

Rubin Exhibit 58

To: "Powell, Amy - Paramount" [redacted]

Hey there. Long time no talk. How is everything??

I have a question for you: apparently, a "Last Kiss" related video located on our page was flagged by someone at Paramount or by a company that Paramount hired (Claimant: Paramount Pictures Corporation on 10.04.2007), and I need to have someone at Paramount retract the claim against our account in order for our page to reinstated. Can you point me in the right direction?

Thanks!

And here's additional info on how to reinstate your channel:

1. Have the claimant, who claimed that the videos were allegedly infringing, retract the claim against the videos that were removed from the account by writing to copyright@youtube.com

-OR-

2. Submit a counter-notification to us at copyright@youtube.com. Have them visit http://www.google.com/support/youtube/bin/answer.py?answer=59826 <http://www.google.com/support/youtube/bin/answer.py?answer=59826&query=counter&topic=&type=> &query=counter&topic=&type= for more information on how to file a counter notification.

Hi Brendan,

Below is what my our Content team instructed to do to reinstate your acct:

The owners of the "lakeshoreent" account will either have to to have the claim made against its account retracted or submit successful counter notification in accordance with the DMCA.

Here are three allegedly infringing videos that caused the three strikes made against the account:

1. "CRANK - clip from the movie" at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kFBAc2-W5_8 <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kFBAc2-W5_8>
Claimant: Lions Gate Films, Inc. on 01.17.2007

2. "CRANK - clip from the movie" at http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C2h1bJk9W9o
Claimant: Lions Gate Films, Inc. on 01.19.2007

3. Clip from the movie The Last Kiss
http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O6ykhnYgmR0
Claimant: Paramount Pictures Corporation on 10.04.2007

Please let me know if you need help or if you have other questions. Thanks!

Warren Kim, you should also speak with Warren Solow to discuss/update him on changes that you/Bay implement. Thanks.

Hello,

At this moment, we are submitting an urgent retraction request to YouTube regarding this matter. Also, we have spoken with Brendan at Lakeshore and assured him that we are on top of this. Upon further investigation, YouTube has suspended the account(s) in question, so we are working to reinstate them in addition to the specified content.

Further, we have added filters to our systems to prevent any future issues with YouTube content submitted by Lakeshore Entertainment.

We are using a direct contact at YouTube and hope to catch him before he has left today. Regardless, I will follow-up tomorrow morning to ensure that the matter is taken care of.

Thank you,

Warren
